You want to help and you have to be careful to get too close. It happens to me that I don't know where most of you are and whether in a zone where his problem is. Maybe we should check the countries where we are - it could be interesting. Then again some people might want to hide this information as private. It's hard to say. Anyway, I like this song and I hope someone else can enjoy it. I'm in danger. Have a good day.
