2. STARTING WITH HYDROLOGICAL AND METEOROLOGICAL ACTIVITIES

- Meteorological Observatory Belgrade (1887.) by Professor Milan Nedeljkovic (1857-1950).
- Milutin Milankovic (1879-1958), a Professor at Belgrade University, member of the Serbian Academy of Science and Arts and its life-long president, synthesized his scientific work and published his famous Astronomic Theory on the Earth's Climate Change in the book "Kanon der Erdbestrahlung und Seine Anwendung auf das Eiszeitenproblem" in 1941.

Preview Preview Alyssa Rosenheck Cheryl Luckett | Charlotte, NC COLLECTOR OF: FiestaWareCURRENT COUNT: 103WHY FIESTAWARE: My grandmother, Bernice Anderson, collected FiestaWare place settings. I'd admired the bright display in her cupboard and was given her collection when she passed.COLOR ME HAPPY: I've always loved the variety (51 colors have been introduced since 1936). And the great thing about FiestaWare is that it's not too difficult to find. If it's a piece I'll use and is brightly colored, it's a done deal.DISPLAY TACTIC: Whether grouped by hue or all mixed up, the pieces add colorful punch to my dining area.SENTIMENTAL PICK: One of my childhood friends gave me the cutest spreader set. Each spreader's handle is a mini replica of a different FiestaWare piece.WHEN SHE'S NOT ANTIQUING: As an interior designer, I work with clients to create colorful homes. I also have a furniture collection with Sylvester Alexander.IG HANDLE: @dwellbycheryl Erica Swagler | Alton, IL COLLECTOR OF: Hand-colored engravingsOH, AND ALSO: Black-and-white silhouettes, china platesWHY ENGRAVINGS: I'm drawn to these ladies wearing early-19th-century fashions.BANG FOR THE BUCK: I bought my first pair for $20. I won't spend more than $15 for a plate.WHEN SHE'S NOT ANTIQUING: I'm a mom and a homemaker, and I love decorating my house.IG HANDLE: @living in a landmark Anna Boyer & Kate Wyman | New Orleans, LA COLLECTOR OF: Kitchen tinsCOLLECTORS' COUNT: 40ALL IN THE FAMILY: "When we moved to New Orleans to start our printing company, my mother—Kate's aunt—gifted us with her collection that she started when she lived in the Big Easy. They have been a great inspiration for our designs."FREE GIFT WITH PURCHASE: "The first tin we bought was a red one from McNess," says Anna. "When we got home and opened it up, there was still coconut dessert mix inside!"OCCUPATION: Co-owners of The Grove Street PressIG HANDLE: @thegrovestreetpress Sharon Phantha | Sacramento, CA COLLECTOR OF: Primitive basketsCOLLECTORS' COUNT: 120WORLDLY WARES: "My baskets are from every corner of the globe—the U.S., Laos, Japan, Brazil, Rwanda, Madagascar, to name a few. Each region has a distinct style, but you'll also find many similarities. They were made using a skill found in almost every culture."PRETTY & PRACTICAL: "I'm drawn to the versatility and functionality of baskets. They can look beautiful on the wall, but in an instant, they can become a fruit bowl, serving platter, or a vessel for cleaning rice."OCCUPATION: Owner, Vintage Curator at The White Elephant Co.IG HANDLE: @whiteelephantco Claire Brody | Austin, TX COLLECTOR OF: Cutting boardsWHY CUTTING BOARDS: I like the idea of collecting things that are kind of unique—they aren't something most people collect.THE ONE THAT ALMOST GOT AWAY: I initially walked away from the pig, but then I realized I couldn't not buy a pig cutting board.HOW I GOT IN THE GAME: I have a real love for vintage shopping, and over time the collections start forming on their own.KEEPING A COOL HEAD: The only way I really become emotionally attached to something is when it's been passed down by my family. Most of my cutting boards have been picked up while shopping around town—which is fun, but not all that sentimental.WHEN SHE'S NOT ANTIQUING: I'm an interior designer who has made it my mission to explain the value of vintage-over-new pieces to my clients.IG HANDLE: @clairebrodyshop Gray Benko | Charleston, SC COLLECTOR OF: Vintage oil portraitsWHY PORTRAITS: It always makes me a little sad to see them for sale without any sort of story attached, so I'm more than happy to give them a home.GO-TO SOURCES: I found my first portrait in a little shop in Walterboro, South Carolina, about three years ago and became obsessed. Once you're looking for them, they find you. Etsy has some great shops devoted to vintage portraiture, so, clearly, a lot of people share my obsession.REGRETS, SHE HAS A FEW: When I think about the ones that got away, there are more than I
